

DECEMBER 2021

ASHA ADVENTURES

HEARING, SPEECH, AND LANGUAGE SCIENCES DEPARTMENT | GALLAUDET UNIVERSITY

GALLAUDET UNIVERSITY @ ASHA

The American Speech and Hearing Association Convention was held in Washington DC this year from November 18-20, 2021. The hybrid conference's theme this year was Rising United. Live attendees were pleasantly greeted at the doors each morning and guided on their journey of professional engagement.

One of the preliminary activities included a tour of Gallaudet University for attendees. All sixty spots were filled and participants had the opportunity to explore the campus on Wednesday, November 17, 2021. The adventure continued on site at the Walter E. Washington Convention Center, where participants from Gallaudet university set up booths, gave presentations, and attended mixers.

Gallaudet University Walking Tour

Gallaudet University Walking Tour

Seminar @ Convention

Gallaudet University Booth @ Convention

Department Mixer at Convention

SEMINARS & POSTERS

Accessing the Curriculum at a Bilingual University (Seminar)

A Meta-Analysis of Expressive Prosody in Cochlear Implant Users (Poster)

Cultural Modifications to Parent Support Groups for Latino Parents of Children Diagnosed with Autism (Poster)

Deaf and Hard of Hearing Audiology Students: Student and preceptor Perspectives (Seminar)

Deaf and Hard of Hearing Students' Skills and Needs for Academic Success (Poster)

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion: Strategies and Implementation within the Gallaudet CSD Programs (Seminar)

Exploring hot INtersectionality, Equity, & Inclusion can Transform Audiology Education (Seminar)

Evolving Guidance for Ethical Global Engagement in Clinical, Scholarly, Service, & Educational Activities (Master Class)

Factors Related to Successful AAC Use: Comparison of Speech-Language Pathologist and Parent Perspectives (Poster)

Peak Frequencies of Voiceless Fricatives: What a Spectral Analysis Involving the Extended High Frequencies Reveal (Poster)

Prosody Skills in Adults with Down Syndrome

Rehabilitative Experiences of Deaf Individuals Post-Stroke (Poster)

Rising to the Challenge: Language Assessment and Intervention with D/HH Children who use ASL (Seminar)

Happy Holidays!

Enjoy your winter break.

