1. INTRODUCTION

This Rules and Guidelines booklet is written to govern the Gallaudet University National Literary Competition: ASL and Writing for Deaf and Hard of Hearing students.

This is the eighth year that Gallaudet University's Youth Programs is hosting the National Literary Competition (NLC). In the past, Gallaudet hosted the annual Gallaudet National Essay, Art, and ASL competition for a number of years until it ended in 2010. The submissions for the NLC will be done entirely through YouTube for ASL and Google Drive links for Writing. All entries will be reviewed by a panel of judges consisting of Youth Programs staff and members of the Gallaudet community including students, staff, and faculty members.

Winners and honorable mentions will be posted on the social media pages and website of Gallaudet University's Youth Programs. One Grand Prize winner from the ASL competition and another Grand Prize winner from the Writing competition will have the option of choosing from three prizes: an all-expense-paid trip to Gallaudet and Washington, D.C.; free registration and transportation for one of Gallaudet's Summer Youth Camps; or a $1000 scholarship to Gallaudet.

2. OBJECTIVES

The National Literary Competition is sponsored by Gallaudet University's Youth Programs.

The purpose of the National Literary Competition in ASL is to further the development of academic ASL; promote creativity and originality in the use of ASL; and to foster a sense of pride in ASL among Deaf and Hard of Hearing students.

The purpose of the National Literary Competition in Writing is to allow deaf and hard of hearing students to showcase their creativity and originality in written English.

3. ELIGIBILITY

For the ASL competition, contestants must be deaf or hard of hearing, and currently enrolled in the 2nd through 12th grades.

For the Writing competition, contestants must be deaf or hard of hearing and currently enrolled in the 6th through 12th grades.

Additionally, all students must register under the school that they are currently enrolled in.

The Youth Programs office reserves the right to request verification from any contestant to determine their eligibility.

Students may participate in the ASL competition as many years as they would like as long as they are enrolled in the 2nd through 12th grades.

Likewise, students may participate in the Writing competition as many years as they would like as long as they are enrolled in the 6th through 12th grades.

4. DIVISIONS & CATEGORIES

4A. DIVISIONS

The ASL competition is broken down into four divisions:

- Elementary (2nd- 5th grades)
- Middle School (6th-8th grades)
- High School (9th-12th grades)
- *Deaf Plus (2nd-12th grades)

The Writing competition is broken down into two divisions:

- Middle School (6th-8th grades)
- High School (9th-12th grades)

*The term “Deaf Plus” is used here as a general grouping for students with additional learning disabilities and/or who are on an alternative track in school.

6. ASL RULES & GUIDELINES

See the rules for different age categories below for more specific guidelines.

- All entries must be submitted through video format via a YouTube link.
- All entries must have the audio removed from the video before submitting the file.
- If filming using a phone, videos must be in landscape mode, not in portrait mode. Refer to image on the last page of the manual*
- DO NOT introduce yourself or your poem/story/presentation title because this will count against the time limit.
- DO NOT include the name of your school anywhere in your written or video submission.
- DO NOT submit videos that are sped up to meet the time limit.
- DO NOT submit videos composed of two or more clips spliced together. All ASL submissions must be one continuous video.

- Title slides are required for all ASL Handshapes Story submissions and must list the handshapes used in the video. This will not count against the time limit.
- Title slides for all other categories, besides the ASL Handshapes Story category, are not required and are optional. If you plan on incorporating a title slide, it will not count against the time limit.
- Judges must be able to see the signer from the torso (hip level) up to a few inches above the head.
- In their video submissions, signers must be standing up (this does not apply to those with limited mobility).
- Use a solid color background.
- Use appropriate clothing (i.e. solid colors, colors contrasting with the background).
- NO props can be used in the videos.
- NO special effects can be used in the videos for ASL Handshapes Stories and Storytelling.
- Special effects can be used in the videos for ASL Presentation.
- One entry can be made per contestant per category. For example, a Middle School student may submit up to four videos: one ASL Handshapes Story, one ASL Poem, one ASL Story, and one ASL Presentation.
- Submissions MUST be original (created by the contestant). If it is discovered that a contestant has copied from someone else's work, that contestant will be automatically disqualified from the ASL Competition for that year.
- If a contestant doesn't abide by the rules above, the submission will be disqualified automatically.

6A. AGE GROUP RULES & GUIDELINES

- Elementary and Deaf Plus
 - Contestants may ask their families and/or teachers to help them develop their ideas for their submission. They may also ask for feedback from others before submitting their final draft.
 - The performance shown on film must be done by the contestant alone.
 - Contestants may enlist the help of someone else to do the filming and the editing of their submissions.
- Middle School and High School

- Contestants may ask their families and/or teachers to help them develop their ideas for their submission. The performance shown on film must be done by the contestant alone.
- Contestants may enlist the help of someone else to do the filming and to show them how to edit their submissions. All actual editing must be done by the contestant alone.
