Front Row: Heather Plaster, Franklin Torres (Captain), Tamara Frijmersum, Shawn Rhinehart. They were successful to win the championship.

Our co-ed volleyball team was looking forward to the trip to Chicago, Illinois to play against other teams from mainstream and residential schools in Waubensee Community College (WCC).

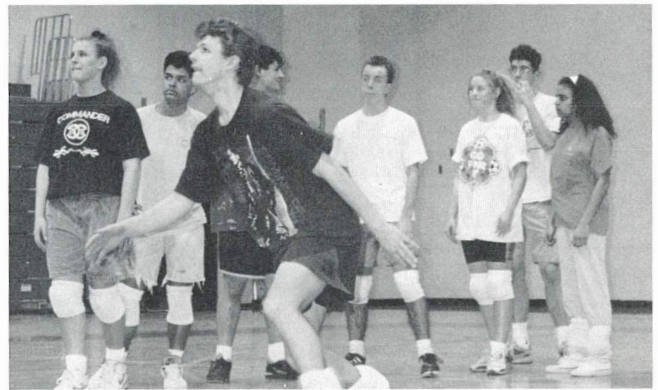

It was a good experience for us to practice about three nights per week and weekends. Also our coaches Luanne Ward and Ricky Suiter prepared us for the tough competitions in Chicago. During our first day of practice, we had a difficult time learning how to pass, set, and hit the ball and to learn different positions. However, we learned how to play volleyball.

We played against Ohio School for the Deaf and Indiana School for the Deaf, we beat them up! After two matches, we felt ready to play for the championship match at WCC. We won the championship, and also had an enjoyable time in Chicago

Franklin Torres

Our team listens as Luanne Ward explains how to beat them up!

Eric Parham's goal was to jump up and hit the ball. Was he successful??

Luanne Ward taught us how to play and it was proper but Eric Parham had a hard time understanding.

They are hoping that the boys win the football game.

Karen Taylor wonders what people think of her cheering?

Huf, did Marvin just walk by?

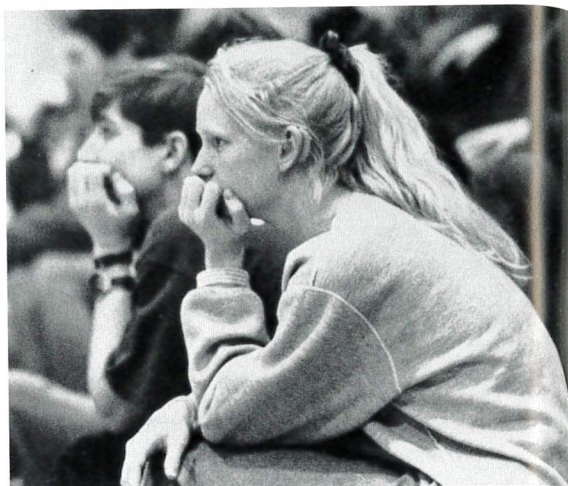

Wanda Riddle says "Let's Go Eagles!"

VARSITY

Bob Winalski seems not to be accepting excuses from his players.

The game must be really exciting because Jeff Branch and Maureen Yates are biting their nails off.

Scott Mohan and Howard Johnson look so cool while Franklin Torres and Alex Jones look so bored!

Shawnee Manol was depressed because Greg Thomas was not there with her.

Thomas D'Angelo and Vilma Miranda have an ego problem 'cuz they are Sr. Peer Advisors.

Cynthia Hunt opens her gift while Grey Roberts pats her on the back.

The Peer Advisor Program was set up about 7 years ago. The program was set up because when students have problems, they go to their peers. The Peer Advisors are trained to listen to problems and advise other students. The Peer Advisor program's purpose is to give students leadership roles. The Peer Advisors are role models and they influence other students in positive ways. The Peer Advisors help staff, they host intake students and are responsible for New Student Orientation. The Peer Advisors give new students tours, try to make them feel comfortable, and try to encourage new students to meet more people. For the rest of the year, the Peer Advisors help both old and new students with different kinds of problems.

Thanks to Alex Jones, Grey Roberts, Scott Mohan, Wanda Riddle, Vilma Miranda, Tom D'Angelo, and Betsy Meynardie for their help with this story.

Work, work,

When I first arrived here, I didn't know much about work at all. I really thought I didn't have many choices about my future. But then I started learning about all the different jobs I can do! I visited many employment sites and have met really nice workers all over campus who have talked to me about their jobs. I practiced with job applications and interviews. I learned about job expectations and evaluations. Then I started my training site rotation. With so many different places here to choose from, like the Print Shop, the LRC, the Athletic Department, Gallaudet Bookstore, the Post Office the Child Development Center, DAKA food service, and in many offices around campus, my only problem is trying to decide where to work next!

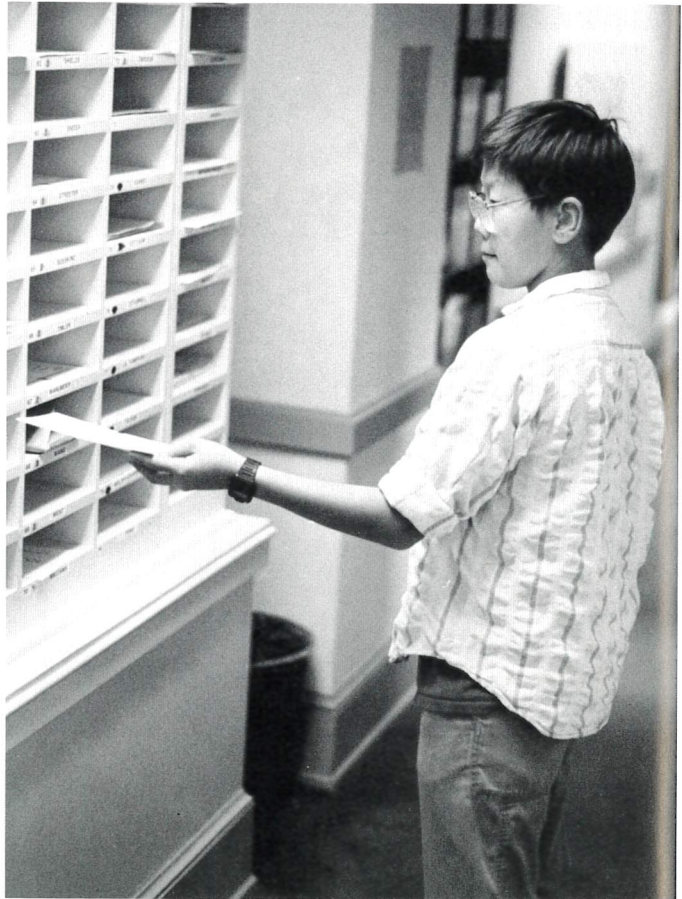

I'm sure I just broke a nail! This is ruining my manicure!(Shanike Hill and Nicole Curry)

Hmmm, confidential Gallaudet communication policy update. . .well, should we leak this information? (Patrick Ridgwell and Antoine Brown)

I swear that copy machine just bit me! (Kendra Logan)

Phew! Another one of those perfumed letters from a secret admirer! (Matthew Emanuel)

work. ♦ ♦

Come on, put your hand in here. I won't do anything. Trust me! (Vu Lam and Dwayne Watson)

I don't even fold my clothes at home. . . I hope my mother doesn't see this picture! (Desilyn DeRosa)

Wow, that teacher has over 178 books out and owes the LRC $$$... (Mike Schroth)

I don't think the boys on this team use enough deodorant! Even after washing, these jerseys still smell!! (Myra Collins)

Let's see, paper clips, rubber bands, pencils, romance novels....yes, a well-equipped office desk! (Tako Jammeh)

DEAR TAMARA,

You have given us a gift -- a perspective on life that we would not have had were it not for you. You taught us to view the world, not as we hear it, but as you see and feel it. It is because of you that we have learned to look beyond spoken words and understand what is truly important in life. When you were a baby and we walked along the Amsterdam canals, your eyes would open wide with awe as you pointed to the cobblestone streets and the gables on the canal houses. You would look for hours at the people and things that fascinated you. By watching you observe and absorb your surroundings, you taught us to do the same. You have grown into a wonderful young woman and we are so proud of you. Thank you for being you, liefie. We love you very much. Wij houden heel erg veel van jou.

Love, Mama & Malaika

CONGRATULATIONS

ALAN!

We can't believe that you have been at M.S.S.D. for five years! Now you will travel on the path to fulfill your dreams and become a great success. We want to let you know that we are proud of you and your many accomplishments — including those in drama, while attending M.S.S.D. (our most favorite poster was that of you in a dramatic pose for the 1989 M.S.S.D. Fall Dance Concert. You had stardome written all over your face — and even more now!) We love you!
