

Comparison Groups 2012

Comparison Group I (<2500 UG, 25-525 GRAD; small MA)ⁱ

Alverno College	Northwest Nazarene University
College of Mt. Saint Vincent	Regis College
Cornerstone University	Saint Martin's University
Holy Names University	Salve Regina University
La Sierra University	University of Rio Grande
Lynchburg College	University of Saint Francis-Ft. Wayne
Lynn University	Utica College
Malone University	Walsh University
Mount St. Mary's College
Oklahoma Christian University

Comparison Group II (private, non-religious or small state institutions w/percentage of minority students, ACT admission scores and open admission policy)ⁱⁱ

Belmont Abbey College	Reinhardt College
Chestnut Hill College	Spalding University
Franklin College	Texas Wesleyan University
Fresno Pacific University	University of Dubuque
Louisiana College
Pfeiffer University

Comparison Group III (Carnegie Classification Instructional Program = Balanced arts & sciences/professions, some graduate coexistence; Undergraduate Profile = Full-time four-year, inclusive; Size and Setting = Small four-year, high residential)ⁱⁱⁱ

Alcorn State University	Eastern Nazarene College
Bay Path College	Elizabeth City State College
Clafin University	Lincoln University of Pennsylvania

ⁱ Comparison Group I identified in 2008 by Tom Kluwin, former director of Institutional Research. This group along with Comparison Group II was part of the Custom Comparison Group used for the annual IPEDS Data Feedback report 2010-2011.

ⁱⁱ Comparison Group II identified in 2008 by Tom Kluwin, former director of Institutional Research. This group along with Comparison Group I was part of the Custom Comparison Group used for the annual IPEDS Data Feedback report 2010-2011. Comparison Group II alone was used for IPEDS Data Feedback report in 2012.

ⁱⁱⁱ Comparison Group III identified by Pat Hulsebosch, executive director of Academic Quality in 2012.